

Kōwhai Specialist School Emergency Management Information for Whānau and Caregivers

Date 24.1.24

Key risks for our school	Kōwhai Specialist School is not in a risk area for Tsunami, flooding or volcanic eruption.
Incident Management Team	Sarah Roil (Principal) Sharon Ackerley (Executive officer, Health and safety team) Katie Hagen (Health and safety leader, Assistant Principal) Mandy Moylan (Therapist team leader, Health and safety team) Kirsten Barbara (OT, Health and Safety team)
Preparing for and practising our plan	In preparation for an emergency Kōwhai Specialist School has developed a procedure that is in line with the Ministry of Education Guidelines 2020. This includes the forming of an Incident Management team, 2 termly health and safety meetings and Staff health and safety inductions. The school engages in drills throughout the year for fire, earthquake, lock down and missing students. Social stories, songs and discussions aimed at the appropriate level are had with our students. Staff are trained in first aid every 2 years. We are engaging with parents and caregivers via this form to keep you updated with our latest Emergency management information. In the event of a real emergency you will be updated via email, website, text and/or Facebook depending on the situation and functioning networks at the time.
Emergency kit	Each satellite has its own emergency kit plus a trip bag that goes with the class whenever they are out of the classroom. Emergency medication is kept in the trip bag. The emergency kit is updated yearly and the trip bag is updated termly.
Reviewing the plan	The Emergency management plan is reviewed yearly. A member of the Health and safety Team will meet with the relevant staff to debrief after each drill is undertaken.
Communication in an emergency	In an emergency depending on the situation and functioning networks at the time we will communicate with you via: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● text ● email ● Facebook ● National radio stations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> National Radio 101.5 FM/ 630AM Newstalk ZB 90.3 FM Radio Live 1368 AM
